

Welcome! Garden Etiquette

Welcome! Garden Etiquette

Visitor Services:

- ▲ Only outdoor washrooms are available at this time.
- ▲ The Redbud offers beverages and light prepackaged snacks.
- ▲ Please keep personal belongings locked in your vehicle.
- ▲ Please watch your children at all times to keep them safe.
- ▲ There is a designated seating area near the Redbud as well as benches throughout the gardens.
- ▲ Please be respectful of other guests and private group functions and remain on gravel and grass walking paths.
- ▲ Photography is welcome and we encourage you to share your snaps with us!
- ▲ Picking, pruning and collecting of any plant material is strictly prohibited. The gardens are monitored. You are being watched!
- ▲ A smoking area is located in the arbor in the French garden.
- ▲ Garbage's are located at The Redbud, adjacent seating area and Arbor.

Accessibility

The gardens are wheelchair accessible. However, due to the nature of the gardens, access could be limited in some cases.

Pets

Sorry, no pets are allowed in the gardens. Only certified Guide Dogs are allowed.

Clothing

Bring appropriate clothing, bug spray and wear comfortable footwear. Spring and fall weather in particular can change quickly, raincoats and umbrellas are welcome.

Compliance with Law & Liability – Entering the gardens, releases Whistling Gardens Ltd. and all property owner affiliates from liability. As a visitor, you agree to comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, codes and regulations, or government agencies, including Federal, Provincial and Municipal bylaws having jurisdiction over the operation of the gardens.

Notwithstanding any other provision, Whistling Gardens Ltd. or any of their officers, directors, employees, agents, sub-contractors and family members or affiliates will not have any liability to the visitor for any act or damages including consequential damages, damages for economic loss, responsible for any injury to or loss suffered by any person, including death, or for any loss of or damages to any property during the time the guests are using the property or are in or about the premises. The guest agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Whistling Gardens Ltd. and all property owner affiliates against all such losses, costs, claims, or demands, including the payment of legal suits and expenses in connection therewith.

Visitor Services:

- ▲ Only outdoor washrooms are available at this time.
- ▲ The Redbud offers beverages and light prepackaged snacks.
- ▲ Please keep personal belongings locked in your vehicle.
- ▲ Please watch your children at all times to keep them safe.
- ▲ There is a designated seating area near the Redbud as well as benches throughout the gardens.
- ▲ Please be respectful of other guests and private group functions and remain on gravel and grass walking paths.
- ▲ Photography is welcome and we encourage you to share your snaps with us!
- ▲ Picking, pruning and collecting of any plant material is strictly prohibited. The gardens are monitored. You are being watched!
- ▲ A smoking area is located in the arbor in the French garden.
- ▲ Garbage's are located at The Redbud, adjacent seating area and Arbor.

Accessibility

The gardens are wheelchair accessible. However, due to the nature of the gardens, access could be limited in some cases.

Pets

Sorry, no pets are allowed in the gardens. Only certified Guide Dogs are allowed.

Clothing

Bring appropriate clothing, bug spray and wear comfortable footwear. Spring and fall weather in particular can change quickly, raincoats and umbrellas are welcome.

Compliance with Law & Liability – Entering the gardens, releases Whistling Gardens Ltd. and all property owner affiliates from liability. As a visitor, you agree to comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, codes and regulations, or government agencies, including Federal, Provincial and Municipal bylaws having jurisdiction over the operation of the gardens.

Notwithstanding any other provision, Whistling Gardens Ltd. or any of their officers, directors, employees, agents, sub-contractors and family members or affiliates will not have any liability to the visitor for any act or damages including consequential damages, damages for economic loss, responsible for any injury to or loss suffered by any person, including death, or for any loss of or damages to any property during the time the guests are using the property or are in or about the premises. The guest agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Whistling Gardens Ltd. and all property owner affiliates against all such losses, costs, claims, or demands, including the payment of legal suits and expenses in connection therewith.